

ST. TIMOTHY AWARD

(Formerly the Eagle of the Cross Award)

NOMINATION FORM

The St. Timothy Award (formerly the Eagle of the Cross Award) is a national award given annually in the Pittsburgh Diocese to Catholic young people from each deanery and each Catholic high school. The youth exemplify the purpose of our Diocesan youth programs by showing particular zeal in the improvement of their own youth ministry program, high school ministry team, or youth work in general within the Diocese. The nominee must be a practicing Catholic and exemplify the qualities of moral integrity, prayer, good works, and Christian leadership.

PLEASE PRINT CLEARLY.

In an essay, please address your reasons for nominating this person. Include specific examples of the following:

- How do they exhibit leadership skills in their youth ministry program, parish, and/or school?
- How involved are they in service/outreach?
- How is their spirituality manifested?
- How do they show community in their youth ministry program, parish, and/or school?
- How are they involved on the deanery, diocesan, and/or national level.

Please use additional paper to type your essay. Particular consideration will be given to the students who are active and involved in their youth ministry programs and high school ministry teams. Please keep in mind that this award is not geared toward quantitative service hours, but to the integrity of the individual and how well he/she is perceived as an outstanding Catholic Christian. The essay plays an important role in the decision process. In addition, please answer the question as to how the nominee inspires you as a nominator.
